

IN SEARCH OF BIG FIVE
AMBOSELI-LAKE NAKURU-MASAI MARA

Day 1: Nairobi - Amboseli

Depart for Amboseli National Park which lies within the shadow of mighty Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest mountain. Game is seen on much of the route to the park. Arrive in time for lunch. Check in and rest before an afternoon game drive to explore this wonderland, set picturesquely at the foot of Africa's highest mountain, Kilimanjaro(LD) Amboseli Serena

Day 2: Amboseli

Time to sample the unique Amboseli National Park which boast of the big game that has made East Africa legendary - lions, buffalos, elephants, cheetahs, giraffes, baboons, gazelles and wildebeests. Amboseli National Park is a splendid place to view elephants. And without even leaving the lodge, one can encounter hundreds of species of wetland and migratory birds known to the immediate area. Morning and evening game drives. Dinner and overnight at the lodge.

Day 3: Nakuru

After breakfast, Check out and depart for Lake Nakuru National Park with a brief lunch stopover in Nairobi. Lake Nakuru National Park was once described by American ornithologist Roger Tory-Peterson as “the most fabulous bird spectacle in the world.” The park and its lake play host to lesser flamingos and species of animals, including lion, leopard, rhino and hyena. Enjoy an afternoon game viewing drive along the lakeshore. (BLD) Lake Nakuru Lodge

Day 4/5/6: Masai Mara

Today drive to the Masai Mara National Reserve, Kenya's most popular game park and home to the "Big Five" – buffalo, elephant, lion, leopard, and rhino. Vast herds of wildebeest and zebra wander the Mara grasslands, their numbers increasing during the annual migration. Arrive in time for lunch followed by an afternoon game drive. The following 2 days you have the opportunity to enjoy an early morning balloon safari (extra cost) over the Mara Plains, which includes a bubbly champagne breakfast upon landing. Or take an early morning game drive followed by breakfast at the lodge. Enjoy the remainder of the afternoon game drive. (BLD) Mara Serena Lodge

Day 7: Homebound

Time to bid farewell to the 8th wonder of the world. Depart for Nairobi after breakfast with optional lunch (own cost) enroute. Upon arrival in Nairobi you will be transferred to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport for your homebound flight.
